TEACHERS TO GLORIFY USSR -- Zurich, Neue Zuercher Zeitung, 23 Nov 51

Berlin (DPA) -- According to the curriculum established by the Central Pedagogical Institute of the German Democratic Republic, teachers in GDR schools must glorify the USSR during the Month of German-Soviet Friendship (November-December 1951), and inspire in their pupils a deep devotion to Stalin. Emphasis is to be placed on the overwhelming number of USSR inventions. For example, it must be taught that a Soviet scientist was the first to use electricity for illumination purposes.
